Grants.gov is a common website for federal agencies to post discretionary funding opportunities and for grantees to find and apply for them. The system houses information on over 1,000 grant programs.

The Federal Register is the official daily publication for rules, proposed rules, and notices of Federal agencies and organizations, as well as executive orders and other presidential documents.

The CFDA contains detailed program descriptions for 2,326 Federal assistance programs available to State and local governments.

USAspending.gov is mandated by the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act of 2006 to give the public access to information on how their tax dollars are spent.

SAGE is New Jersey’s grant management system. Local governments, schools, and even nonprofits can apply for and manage grants through this system.

NJ does not have one online location to easily find state grant opportunities. Each department and agency lists its own grants on its own pages in its own way. [See slide 11 for state department URLs] Maryland

The New Jersey Register is the official state publication of proposed rules and rules adopted by State agencies. It also contains public notices. The NJR is published twice a month.

NJ DCA posts municipal and county fiscal reports, particularly Chapter 159 budget amendments.
The League’s Grant Resource Center is updated regularly and includes grant resources, news and information, a grant seekers toolkit, and listings of federal, state, local, corporate, and private grants.

NACo’s Grants Clearinghouse is a members-only benefit that offers a one-stop-shop for federal, state, corporate, and foundation grant information.

The NLC and USCoM do not specifically offer grant information on their websites in one easy to find/search location, but you can find references to grant information in news postings and other areas of these websites. Use the search feature.
